

Finding Aid for the Religious Text Collection, 1792-1932

Collection Overview

Title: Religious Text Collection, 1792-1932

Other Creators: The collection has formed out of many individual donations.

Extent: 10.35 Linear Feet, 19 boxes.

Arrangement: The Religious Text Collection is arranged chronologically. In some instances, items may be too large for a box, in which case strict chronological order is broken. These items are kept as close to their chronological place as is possible. Undated material is listed near the end of the collection.

Subjects: Bible, Christianity, Hymns, Religion

Languages: English, German, Hebrew, Danish, Norwegian, Swedish

Scope and Contents of the Materials

This collection consists of a variety of Christian religious texts. Bibles, most of them written in English and a handful written in a variety of northern European languages, represent the bulk of the collection. Other texts include Hymnals, Psalms, and Catechisms, as well as texts related to Christian religious study and practice. Many items include family histories or notes, either written on pages designated for such information or on the inside of the front or back covers. The collection spans three centuries, from 1792 to 1932.
